TRUMP'S WIN TO IGNITE 2ND
MARKET RALLY. THE LAST TIME
HE DID THE MARKETS SOARED!!

TRUMP WINS!

And it didn't take weeks or months
to figure out, thank goodness.

More importantly, the last time Donald J. Trump won the Presidential vote, the markets welcomed him like a conquering hero.

In his first year alone, the S&P 500 shot up 21.83%, the Dow rose 25.08%
and the Nasdaq soared 31.52%.

The Trump Bump was real, and it started immediately.

From November 9th, 2016 - when Trump was announced the winner - until he was sworn in on January 20th, 2017, the S&P went up 5.8%, the Dow was up 6.6% and the Nasdaq led the way with a 7.6% gain.

With Trump's victory on Tuesday,
it's all about to happen again.
